There's very little information about how Frederick got to India or what he was doing there. He was born in Newington, London and appears in the 1861 and 1871 censuses but not in the 1881 or later ones. Certainly in 1897 he was in the Commissariat Transport Department and presumably was based in Rawalpindi.

Amelia Agnes Baldwin

We do know that Amelia and Frederick moved to Calcutta some time before 1914 because in her son Gilbert Allen Henry's army attestation papers his next of kin is given as Mrs F W Baldwin living at 7 Ezra Mansions, Old Courthouse Street, Calcutta.

Also Frederick died and was buried in Calcutta in 1925.

We also know that, while Frederick was still alive, Amelia Agnes made a trip to England. She sailed from Calcutta on the SS City of Poona and arrived in London on 3rd December 1922. The address she gives in the shipping details is that of her daughter Gwendoline. There is no record of when she returned to India but presumably she stayed quite a while and applied for probate on Clement Silas's will which was granted on 15th September 1923.

Amelia Agnes Baldwin

We know that she did return to India because she's also recorded arriving in London on 18th April 1926 on the SS Novara from Calcutta. Presumably this is following Frederick's death and she never returned to India. Again she gave her address as that of her daughter.

However, I have not been able to find where or when she died although several other researchers say she died in 1930 but I can find no evidence for that. Certainly I have not been able to find her in any of the 1939 registers. Maybe more detailed research on the children will throw some light on this.
