Marriage of Clement Silas Anscombe & Amelia Agnes Mulcahy

From his marriage record it is evident that he is still with the 9th Lancers and by this time he had been promoted to Troop Sergeant Major. In 1813, cavalry regiments introduced the troop sergeant major to replace the quartermaster as the senior NCO of a troop. This meant he would have been in charge of a troop of 25 to 30 men.

I could find no information about Amelia Agnes before her marriage, apart from the fact that her father was William Henry Mulcahy. With a name like Mulcahy she was probably of Irish origin. Also as she was only 17 when she was married it's probable that she was born in India.

Clement and Amelia's first child, Harold Clement, was born at Ambala on 25th October 1884
